PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our last meeting in February, we presented PROBUS pins to new members that joined our group. They were Frank McCarey, Blake Brodersen, John Crilley and Mark Fisher. Carl White also joined and will be presented with the PROBUS binder at the March meeting. PROBUS member John Cook was in the hospital but is now recuperating. Heart problems.

John Morris has stepped forward to become the 1st VP. It should be noted the Management Committee needs to add a 2nd Vice President. Any volunteers?

As it was stated previously, our National President, Marlene Pearce will be the guest speaker at the Ladies PROBUS meeting on March 17th. Our club was extended an invitation to attend this luncheon. A Jiggs dinner of Corn Beef and Cabbage will be served. 9 members purchased tickets to attend that function. It is being held at the Royal Canadian Legion in West Saint John on Wilson Street, near the Golden Mile Highway.

It should be interesting to see as many 150 in attendance this function.

Minutes from the PROBUS meeting held on February 19th of 2020.

HUMOR

AVOCADOS

A wife asks her husband, "Could you please go shopping for me and buy one carton of milk and if they have avocados, get 6."

A short time later the husband comes back with 6 cartons of milk. The wife asks him, "Why did you buy 6 cartons of milk?"

He replied, "They had avocados."

If you're a woman, I'm sure you're going back to read it again! Men will get it the first time. My work is done here.

WATER IN THE CARBURETOR

WIFE: "There is trouble with the car. It has water in the carburetor."

HUSBAND: "Water in the carburetor? That's ridiculous."

WIFE: "I tell you the car has water in the carburetor."

HUSBAND: "You don't even know what a carburetor is. I'll check it out. Where's the car?"

WIFE: "In the pool".

OVERHEARD ON THE JOB

Boss to line worker: I need you to do such and such.

Line worker: You didn't say the "P" word.

Boss: Paycheck.

THE PHONE

A young man wanted to get his beautiful blonde wife something nice for their first wedding anniversary. So, he decided to buy her a cell phone. He showed her the phone and explained to her all its features.

Meg was excited to receive the gift and simply adored her new phone.

The next day Meg went shopping. Her phone rang and, to her astonishment, it was her husband on the other end.

"Hi Meg," he said, "how do you like your new phone?"

Meg replied, "I just love it! It's so small and your voice is clear as a bell, but there's one thing I don't understand though."

"What's that, sweetie?" asked her husband.

"How did you know I was at Wal-Mart?"

A manager in a large company noticed a new man one day and told him to come into his office.

"What's your name?" was the first thing the manager asked the new guy. "John" the new guy replied. I don't know what kind of place you worked at before, but I don't call everybody by their first name! It breeds to familiarity and that leads to a breakdown in authority. I refer to my employees by their last name only---Smith, Jones, Baker---that's all. I am to be referred to as Mr. Robertson. Now that we got off straight, what is your last name?

The new guy sighed and said, "Darling" My name is "John Darling".

"Okay, John, the next thing I want to tell you is
